

TRACKING ...

THE ADVENTURE BEGINS

Come to the Triangle T Guest Ranch in southeast Arizona for a LEARNING ADVENTURE in the land once known as Apacheria. Here among the massive rock formations, the deep ravines, the arroyos and the canyons, you will acquire a knowledge and gain an expertise in the field crafts and skill sets of man-tracking, signcutting, tactical trailing, stalking and the use of horses for riding and packing across rugged country. You will follow tracks across difficult terrain and read the story those tracks tell .

What a Tale
the Trail will tell

In taking part of this adventure, you will:

- detect slight changes in the normal state of things and thus identify clues that would elude the untrained person.
- learn from the lessons of history and be able to apply them to present-day activities.
- automatically establish a mindset and attitude of alertness to situations, and an awareness of the surroundings.
- enhance your observation, detection and deduction skills
